

Pammie's Speech at St Mark's College 05/12/2021

Welcome to you all, it is such a special day. We thank our Premier, The Honourable Steven Marshall, Professor Don Markwell, Head of College and Guests.

We are here today to attend the unveiling of our portrait.

It has been a great honour to have sat for Tsering Hannaford for four weeks and a wonderful experience.

Ian and I have both been involved with the College over many years and we feel honoured to be here today, please enjoy this special occasion.

Thank You.
